Synopsis Books:

My life, of late, has become something of an adventure and - although the Official Secret's Act strictly forbids it - I can't help myself telling everyone all about it. My name's Fox. Augustus Fox. Or Gus to my friends. English teacher, part time carer for an autistic brother, a really rather amateur poker player, and soon to be something of the reluctant spy. When a recently arrived Russian gangster asks me to privately tutor his son, MI5 come calling and I soon find myself caught up in a web of lies and deceit - and not even allowed to blog about it.
